Item 1:

The public joins us; the Moderator welcomes everyone and will set expectations for the evening. With some 30 candidates participating, we'll need to stay on track. A time keeper will assist with this. If you exceed the allotted response time, time's up will be announced to ensure equity for all candidates. We are unable to take questions from stakeholders as we do not enough time for each candidate to respond.

Each Candidate will introduce themselves and has 15 seconds to do so

Item 3:

Then there'll be a series of questions posed to the Candidates grouped by Director seats. We are following the order of seats as listed on the City Clerk's website. For each Director seat, the speaking order of the candidates will be alphabetically by last name.
